

BUSHIN KAN NIPPON KEMPO TEXAS USA

American Nippon Kempo Federation

Outline

We are a second generation Bushin Kan Nippon Kempo Dojo following the traditional teachings of our Sensei, Master Jesse Marquez-Lomeli and we focus on the realistic training of traditional Nippon Kempo.

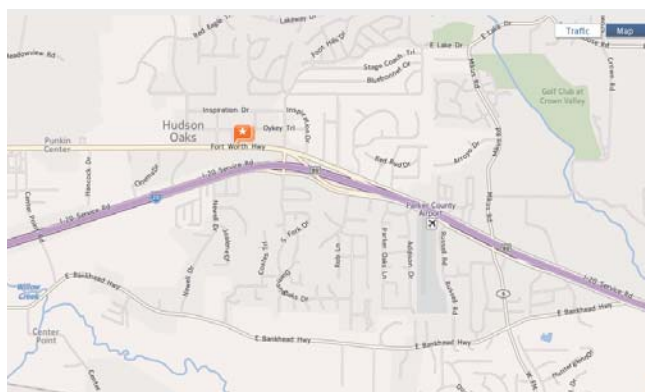

Philosophy

The name “Bushin Kan” or “Heart/House of The Samurai” was given to Master Jesse Marquez-Lomeli back in the mid 1990’s following a competition in Japan.

Master Marquez-Lomeli honored us by passing down the name Bushin Kan to us when we resurrected Nippon Kempo in Texas.

We focus on drills in a realistic training environment based on the philosophy of for every perfect execution of a technique it must have been practiced 10,000 times.

Kokoro Dojo's

American Nippon Kempo Federation

Outline

The three Kokoro Dojo's were started by Manuel R. Nunez.
 Kokoro Dojo-Montebello, started in 1998
 Kokoro Dojo-Commerce, started in 2007
 Kokoro Dojo-Rialto, started in 2010.
 Garvey Ranch Park Dojo, started in 1994
 (this dojo was given to Mark & Marie Ishida in 2001)

Philosophy

All participants are met with a concern for their health, fitness and personal goals. They are assured that their goals can and will be accomplished.

All students of Nippon Kempo Kokoro Dojo's are taught to think as most people do not think. This means they will be taught an attitude to be life-long learners, which is the key plan to achieving their goals. In this process, over time, they will become physically fit, develop an unbending will to learn and work hard to achieve their goals, a competitive spirit, and a willingness to teach others to help others through the learning process they experienced.

Opportunity for belt ranking, local, national, and international competitions are available to all students.
